

Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 10.

AMES' malignity in refusing to sign the credentials of Senator elect Lamar is entirely in keeping with his antecedents since his occupation of the gubernatorial chair of Mississippi, his chief aim at all times being to thwart the will of the intelligence of the State. In the absence of any other excuse he says "the air is too full of impudence for me to sign credentials." Contemptible subtlety! He cannot shield himself behind the plea of a fraudulent election, for he has in a hundred ways recognized the Legislature that elected Colonel Lamar. His action is due solely to a petty spite engendered by the contempt in which he is held by the people of Mississippi.—Brunton Republican

The latest phase of leap-year eccentricity is recorded from Portsmouth, N. H., where a lady died in deep mourning promenaded the street the other day with a ribbon in front of her forehead, on which was embroidered in white the word "Alone."
